“The manic energy that the Drunk Drivers bring to the stage ensures they always sound fresh ... Combine tight rhythm section, strong singer-front person and non-wanky guitar hero; add Farfisa (and Blatz) as needed; stir crowd frequently.” Isthmus, Madison WI

“Drunk Drivers’ sound contains genuinely serpentine swagger... equal parts Graceland, Jonestown and Waco exultation.” The Pulse, Minneapolis, MN

CRST-68

“Bukowski set to music by four guys who have somehow managed to make being a motor head from small-town Wisconsin sexy.” Minneapolis Star Tribune

Sandy Trapps – Drums
Chongo – Bass
Bernie Sensation – Voice/Farfisa
Red Lagerbock- Guitar.

Smart minimalist mixture of punk, classic rock and jerky post-punk; over-driven bass, heavy guitar & drums with a rural vibe.

Already into its SECOND DECADE delivering rock and roll (and collective crowd hangovers) to the regional club scene, the rambunctious Wisconsinites don't look like they'll be slowing down musically any time soon.

SUGGESTED TRACKS FOR AIRWAVES

- #2. Model Citizen: Average man disillusioned by choice between admirable vs. enviable life.
- #1. Swedish Rock Band: Chronicles journey of Scandinavian rock outfit from Europe to WI.
- #6. Hitchin a Ride: A fine evening is ruined when our hero is locked in a trunk and robbed by locals
- #3. Get Ahead: Confessions of small town citizen who relishes in being degraded by big-city folks.

Sounds like: Pixies, Black Sabbath, Weezer, Joy Division, Springsteen with a punk band.

“They drank and played for almost 2 1/2 hours. Their crowd consisted mostly of Wisconsin natives in stocking caps and flannels hoisting their Old Style bottles well above their heads. Good times.” –Big city concert goer
